

SOCIETIES STAGE JOINT GATHERING

Adelphic and Phrenosophians of Augustana Combine in Presenting Literary Program.

FINE NUMBERS PRESENTED

Two Addresses and Four Musical Selections Constitute Entertaining—Other College News.

Four excellent musical numbers and two purposeful speeches constituted the first joint program ever given by the Adelphic and Phrenosophian literary societies of Augustana, which took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the chapel of the main building. The event was an unqualified success and will undoubtedly find even more favor in the subsequent meetings of the year.

Two of the musical numbers were furnished by the Adelphic-Phrenosophian orchestra under the leadership of C. H. Kuepferl and were greatly appreciated by those in attendance. The other two consisted of a vocal solo and an organ solo by Miss Edna Wilson and Martin Dahlberg respectively, both of them giving excellent renditions. The first speech, delivered by Herbert Swanson on the subject "The Problems of Life," was most eloquently and was agreed upon to push. Mr. Swanson brought out the idea that the same man in his life that knows no end, he declared that the exponential phase of existence was but a small portion and that the chief aim should be a life of true service. Ferdinand Cederberg, who followed on the last, "Impressions of Angie," presented a remarkably true picture of the school as he first saw it and wound up with the sentiment that he "believed in Angie."

The program is as follows:

Selection—Adelphic-Phrenosophian Orchestra.

Speech, "The Problems of Life"—Herbert Swanson.

Organ solo—Martin Dahlberg.

Speech, "Impressions of Angie"—Ferdinand Cederberg.

Vocal solo—Edna Wilson.

Selection—Adelphic-Phrenosophian Orchestra.

Sale Ends Tomorrow.

That, although today was scheduled for the end of the advance sale of tickets for the Augustana Homecoming, tickets would be sold up until tomorrow afternoon, was the announcement made by Manager Leonard and Kendall of the Lyons association. Tickets for the general public must be reserved tomorrow at the Lydia music house, Rock Island, or the Tri-City Piano company in Moline, and the reservations will be priced, as announced, at 50 cents, $1 and $2. Nearly all of the advance sale tickets have been sold and as but one day remains to purchase tickets for those who would reserve it is urged that all persons of the course act promptly. Augustana demands will not be permitted to reserve its tomorrow, but may do so on Saturday at the college gates.

Students Entertained.

The Wolf and Blumengard clothing store of Moline was host last evening to a representative group of Augustana young men in what proved a successful and unique reception. Fifty-five of the boys were gathered at two long tables and after partaking of an excellent six course dinner enjoyed a snappy program in which about one-fourth of those present took part. The purpose was to bring the students closer to the Moline firm and its ways of business and at the same time to provide an event that would be of benefit to the boys and to the institution. It was considered by all in attendance quite a compliment to the school and its position in the tri-cities, that it was chosen to be given such an unique honor. The decorations of the tables were especially worthy of note, as they combined with red carnations and other hot house productions the natural beauty of the woods at this time of year, showing a profusion of autumn leaves and plants that made a very pleasing effect. Elmer Larson of the college acted as toastmaster at the meeting and after dinner rapped for order and called the first number of the program. The latter made a hit with every one, the speeches being snappy and to the point and the music of the best quality.
